

Winter 2018

Dear Friends,

Community in Crisis, a local grassroots nonprofit organization which is fighting the national opioid epidemic and The Bernards Inn will host Chef's Unite! - A Culinary Tasting Experience For A Cause at our Bernardsville, New Jersey location on Sunday, March 18th, 2018. We will gather over 20 outstanding and acclaimed local chefs and restaurants to unite for this tasting event to raise funds for this worthy and essential cause. By joining this cause as a corporate sponsor, you can assist the New Jersey community in tackling a nationwide epidemic that affects so many of our family, friends and neighbors.

Chef's Unite! is Community in Crisis's largest fundraiser of the year and is essential for funding their mission. The event features tasting stations with each chef and provides a time for the guests to not only taste their creations but an opportunity for them to meet and interact with some of New Jersey and beyond most renowned chefs. This event's culinary focus is built for the foodie philanthropist.

The night's success is largely dependent upon the generosity of the corporate sponsors. We would greatly appreciate if you would choose a sponsorship level that suits your company for Chefs Unite! Your tax deductible sponsorship for this year's fundraiser will go towards substance abuse prevention and education in the towns and cities we all share. A sponsorship form can be found below.

As a supporter of Community in Crisis, you will quickly realize the value of your sponsorship by gaining increased exposure to its very loyal families and community leaders who share your passion for the cause. Community in Crisis's non-profit tax ID number is 81-3303136. We hope that you will participate in this community event and we thank you in advance for your generosity.
